<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Bill of Rights &amp; Responsibilities</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>LOYALTY</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to be valued as an equal partner within the organization</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to feel that efforts have a purpose and contribute to the organization’s goals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to learn and follow organizational policies and procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DUTY</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to receive meaningful assignments that match personal goals, abilities, knowledge, and experience</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to receive orientation, training, a job description, guidance, feedback, and the resources necessary to carry out assignments</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to maintain professional standards and to perform assigned tasks to the best of one’s abilities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to honor commitments</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RESPECT</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to be treated with respect</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to be heard and to help plan assignments and projects</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to respect others and the diversity of opinion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to be open to change</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SELFLESS SERVICE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to participate in a volunteer program that enhances and extends the goals of the organization</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to pursue excellence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to work with compassion, caring, and commitment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HONOR</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to work in a climate that values volunteerism and volunteer service</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to formal and informal expressions of appreciation and recognition</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to embrace the values of the organization and the Army Volunteer Corps</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to ensure that actions reflect the highest ethical standards</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>INTEGRITY</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to be treated with fairness and equity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to honest and open communication</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to safeguard confidential information and protect privacy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to act fairly and impartially</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PERSONAL COURAGE</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to challenging and meaningful assignments</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The right to opportunities that promote personal and professional growth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to do what is right, not what is merely convenient</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The responsibility to accept personal and professional challenges by developing new skills, taking advantage of training opportunities, and accepting leadership roles</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>